companies and such widely recognized media, advertisement, and entertainment organizations as Time, People Magazine, Newsweek, Esquire, Vanity Fair, Forbes, Rolling Stone, Wired, Entertainment Weekly, ESPN, among others. He has developed a specialty reputation as a celebrity photographer who has been retained to photograph subjects including Martin Scorsese, Hugh Hefner, Robert Duvall, Lucy Liu, Will Ferrell, Mel Brooks, Christina Applegate, Ben Stiller, Owen Wilson, Penelope Cruz, Jet Li, Bill Murray, Joaquin Phoenix, and Rene Russo.

10. Mr. Grecco is the author of two technical treatises, The Art of Portrait Photography, Creative Lighting Techniques and Strategies, Amherst Media (2000) ISBN 0936262850, and Lighting and the Dramatic Portrait, the Art of Celebrity and Editorial Photography, Amphoto (2006) ISBN 0817442278. 11. In 2012 Mr. Grecco was a recipient of the Professional Photographer Leadership Award from the United Nations International Photographic Council in recognition of his work with the American Photographic Artists (“APA”) organization. His reputation for professional service turns, in part, on his efforts to educate photographers concerning the benefits of copyright registration as a way to combat the pandemic of image piracy of that accompanied the rise of the internet. Mr. Grecco serves on the board of APA as national Executive Vice President, and is the chair of the Advocacy Committee which fights for the rights of image creators.

12. An article in the October 12, 2015 issue of Photo District News titled “How (And Why) To Make Copyright Registration Part Of Your Workflow” consists of an interview with Mr.

Grecco concerning his system of routine copyright registration procedures for the benefit of the profession in order to combat content theft. Mr. Grecco teaches that the economic viability of photography as an art and profession is endangered because “[p]eople are systematically stealing, and we need to systematically defend ourselves.”
